

"Transsexual AV actress"

Thank you for all the comments about "AV" these past few days.

Currently, the image "I'm becoming an AV actress" is linked to only one work, and before that, it was published as "Please wait a moment page".

My current figure is the result of ballet practice and some pretty intense flexibility exercises,

I can see that I have a really slim waist

My butt feels round and big.

My weight is now close to 83kg, and by doing ballet with this body, I've become an ultra-muscular woman.

"Looking forward to an organization that advocates eliminating waste"

I look forward to the establishment of a political party or NPO that advocates

"eliminating waste." Extravagant behavior is not necessarily against the law, but rather it is a perfectly natural idea to cut down on wasteful expenses.

"Because I'm in the car."

This is my personal experience of having experienced this mental state for many years.

There is a similar condition called body dysmorphic disorder, and there is a high possibility that this condition may occur at the same time.

Even if you ask people around you, they will 100% say "No one saw it or said anything," so please tell them exactly that.

Please say 「That's right」
