

A fashion model who became an AV actress

Style monster and physical strength monster

I know it's a bit pretentious to brag about myself, but

A long time ago, I was in Hamamatsucho on my way home from classes at Shiseido Gakuen, and a group of young men whispered to me,

"You have a beautiful figure,"

and on the train, they were peeking up my skirt from the platform, and I thought that was pretty impressive,

and now, during ballet exercises.

"Beautiful curves that accentuate lewdness"

It is also true that this has become the case.

It's different from the slim figure of a fashion model.

"A fashion model who became an AV actress"

Is that about it...?

Wherever I go, regardless of gender, I often hear people asking, "What's for dinner tonight?"

These days,

She's got a great figure and a great stamina. Her upper body doesn't look like it, but she weighs about 80kg...

Exactly

With a nonchalant look

That's the body type I'm aiming for...

Also, the appearance

"An expression that doesn't give the impression that you're making any effort at all"

I'm doing it.

By the way, when I'm around, the kids come and go,
and I've figured out the pattern, but I think it's a sign they're growing up.
(That doesn't mean they're not efficient.)
