

Be calm, but be a demon general...

I'm currently working on composing my second song. I started composing yesterday and have completed up to the third bar today, 2025-10-19.

I've only completed one composition, AnMeiden (which took about two months to complete in September 2024), but it will probably be finished next month. I'm trying to make a song that's longer than AnMeiden, and I'll upload it to YouTube as usual, with a banner link on my website...

By the way, I don't think it will be called AnMeiden opt.1, so I will leave the song title as it is.

No one tells me what to do, but I'm the strictest boss in the universe...

Be calm, but be a demon general...
